

Promote your business in our online publication – Grapevine.

Another benefit of becoming a Member of Essex Chambers of Commerce is to be able to promote your company through press releases submitted to our online publication – The Grapevine.

This quarterly seasonal publication features Members good news stories, general news, and updates from Essex Chambers of Commerce.

Submitting a press release.

Content should feature a business news story and be non-sales heavy, approximately 500-1000 words.

Content can be submitted by emailing a Word document, with your logo and/or a jpeg or png small photograph attached. There is no limit to articles that can be submitted per edition.

The email address to send your company press releases to is press@essexchambers.co.uk. An email will be sent to you to inform you which edition your article has been submitted to.

We are not able to use posters/adverts or advertorials within the publication.

Deadlines for article submissions:

SPRING EDITION – published: 23rd March 2016 – deadline: 17th March 2016

SUMMER EDITION – published: 22nd June 2016 – deadline: 16th June 2016
